

- Ellen Galinsky is the Chief Science Officer and Executive Director of Mind in the Making at the Bezos Family Foundation.
 - She continues to serve part time as the President and Co-Founder of Families and Work Institute (FWI).
 - Her more than 100 books and reports include the best-selling Mind in the Making: The Seven Essential Life Skills Every Child Needs, Ask The Children, and the now classic The Six Stages of Parenthood.
 - She has published over 300 articles in journals, books and magazines.
-
- Mind in the Making—in conjunction with Vroom—is an unprecedented effort to partner with leading developmental researchers to share the science of children’s learning with the general public, families and professionals who work with them.
 - Ellen has been a presenter at numerous White House Conferences and was elected a Fellow of the National Academy of Human Resources in 2005. She is the former President of the National Association for the Education of Young Children.
 - She is the recipient of many awards including the Distinguished Achievement Award from Vassar College, Seven Wonders of the Work Life World from Working Mother magazine and the Friend of Children Award from the Southern Early Childhood Association.